

FREE 2009 2 Euro Cent Coin from Cyprus

Nicholas, Tuesday 23 February 2010 - 21:55:50

This contest is going to be very simple. I just acquired a bank roll of the new 2 Euro Cent coins from Cyprus. I put one aside for my collection and 4 others are reserved. The remaining 45 are FREE to the first 45 people who add a value to the price guide in our database.

It's pretty simple. If you are not already a Coinbragger, Join Free Today. The next step is to pick a coin from your collection that you have either bought or sold in the last year. Find that coin in our database and then add a price. When you are done, post a message on the forum in This thread here.

Free coin, free shipping and handling. It's that easy! Everyone from anywhere in the world is eligible to participate.
